Deputy Sheriffs Search More Than a Hundred Houses in Austrian Settlement.

THINK ARMS WERE HIDDEN

ATTEMPT TO PREVENT FUTURE MURDERS BY FEUDISTS.

In the belief that an ounce of prevention is worth several pounds of cure, a party of deputy sheriffs, consisting of Joe Sharp, the Kinney, Andy Smith and Axel Steele, left for Garfield yesterday, where they picked up Deputies Reed and Price, and proceeded to search more than 100 Austrian and Greek boarding and dwelling houses for deadly weapons.

The vicious war, which has been carried on between the Greek and Roman Catholic Austrians, and which has already been productive of three deaths, compelled this action on the part of the county authorities. The deputies were armed with search warrants which gave them access to all the buildings in Garfield.

It is said to be almost impossible to trace the authors of any crime which may be committed by a member of the Austrian colony. Although they have a bitter and bloodthirsty feud among themselves, they are more than averse to giving any information to the authorities which would lead to the arrest and conviction of any criminal of their own race, whether through fear of reprisals at the hands of the criminal's friends or through the distaste so noticeable among all the more ignorant foreigners in this country of allowing any inkling of their private quarrels to become known to the authorities.

Searched Many Houses.
In view of this difficulty, and because it is well known to the authorities that the caudron of hatred is still seething in both Garfield and Bingham, it was determined to confiscate all the deadly weapons which could be found.

When the deputies completed their search the results were most disappointing. In the 100 houses which were searched were discovered three sticks of dynamite, six shotguns, nine pistols of various design and calibre, four dirks and one combination knife and shaver.

The 300 men who quit work at 3 o'clock in the afternoon at the smelter, were searched and no weapons found. The 200 who went to work at that time were also without weapons.

The officers say that there are many more firearms in the possession of the Austrians, and believe that they have been hidden somewhere near the smelter in anticipation of a search. It is seldom that an Austrian is searched for any reason and found to be unarmed, and the battle which took place on July 9, in which hundreds of shots were fired, substantiates this belief.

The deputy sheriffs did not take the names of any of the owners of the houses in which the arms were found, as there is a question of law as to their right to have firearms in their possession, but they confiscated all the weapons found, and the search has had a most salutary effect on the bloodthirsty element among the residents of the smelter town.

Two deserted wives yesterday petitioned the district court for divorces from their unfaithful husbands.

Anna Barbara Zobel, 30, 1902, in Nürnberg, Germany. On April 30, 1907, they settled at Granger, and the wife says that shortly afterward she was deserted, and that her husband has gone back to Germany to live. ENGINEERS' LEASE PAYS FIRST DIVIDEND

LYTTLETON PRICE.

Salt Lake engineers who induced their friends to invest in a property that has made good.

(Special to the Herald.)

Goldfield, July 25.—The Engineers' lease paid dividend No. 1 this week, fifteen cents per share on 600,000 shares, a total of $90,000, the bulk of which will go to Salt Lake City.

The lease has been in ore for about five weeks, but has made the other bonanza look like cheap ones in that time. Settlements for the past six days' shipments amounted to $72,000 for 177 tons of ore, an average of better than $400 per ton. The total gross production up to date has exceeded $400,000 and the Florence Goldfield Mining company has received in royalties almost enough to pay its regular quarterly dividend of $105,000.

Besides Lyttleton Price and J. C. Nivin, who with Harry Taylor promoted the Engineers' Leasing company, thirteen other residents of Salt Lake hold stock in the company. They paid thirty cents per share for it, principally because Nivin recommended it and Price endorsed the recommendation. The treasury stock which they sold they made preferred stock, agreeing to refund the purchase price out of the first profits made from the lease, which they did; so the first regular dividend paid is all velvet to the Utahns who own it, a profit of 50 per cent on the investment. But this is not all, for the company will be able to pay at least two more, from the ore already mined and in sight in the mine.

The fortunate Salt Lake investors who secured stock in the bonanza are Dr. John F. Critchlow, E. B. Critchlow and Miss May U. Critchlow, D. Moore Lindsay, Wm. J. Barrette, Louis J. Morton, Howard P. Kirtley, Dr. Union Worthington, Warren Benjamin, Archibald A. Kerr, Nelson Keller, Waldemar Van Cott and Edward M. Allison.

DEATH WATCH ON DOG LITTLE GIRL EN ROUTE TO THE WEST IS NOT TOLD OF FATHER'S SUICIDE

Family of James Chamberlain Making Last Hours of Condemned Canine Happy.

The family of James Chamberlain is keeping a loving death watch over the dog condemned by Judge Diehl on Friday to suffer the extreme penalty. The date of the execution was fixed for yesterday morning, when Chief Pitt was about to send the executioner to his gruesome task it was found that the body could not be removed until Monday morning. The dog was therefore relieved until that time.

In the meanwhile he is about the most pampered dog in Salt Lake. He is urged to eat at all hours of the day and night, and a special stock of dainties has been laid in at his last hours may be passed in supreme happiness and content. The dog's crime consisted in removing a succulent morsel from the leg of a young girl while she was passing in front of the Chamberlain residence.

"DRY" SUNDAY IS DISCUSSED

Saloon Men, License Committee and Police Chief Talk Over Liquor Regulations.

DROUGHT WILL CONTINUE

PROHIBITION TO BE ENFORCED IN ROOMING HOUSES.

At a meeting held at police headquarters yesterday afternoon, at which Mayor Bransford, Councilmen Black, O'Donnell and Stewart and M. E. Mulvey and George Strickley were present, the question of police regulation of the saloons, which was thoroughly discussed, Chief Pitt introduced the question of liquor selling by the restaurants and rooming houses, and after the matter had been talked over by the city officials the chief was ordered to issue all rooming houses which can be discovered selling liquor. A number of the rooming houses in the business part of town have dumb waiters running from the saloons on the ground floor, and it will be the particular duty of the police department to see that these dumb waiters remain immovable as well as dumb.

There will be no change from the universal drought which obtained in Salt Lake and the surrounding resorts last Sunday. Mr. Strickley spoke strongly in favor of the Saloon Men's Protective association and urged that all the saloon men of the city join the association for their mutual benefit and protection, and that the Sunday closing ordinance be strictly observed by all. Mr. Mulvey, who unofficially represented the saloon men who do not belong to the association, said nothing, but listened hard.

According to Chief Pitt, the only protection for the saloon men of Salt Lake is to join in the association and submit to strict police regulation of the saloons. The chief believes that if the saloons are allowed to run without police regulation that there is no question but that the prohibition movement which has already obtained a strong hold in Utah will succeed in putting a bill providing for absolute prohibition through the next legislature. As was the case last Saturday, the saloon men notified their patrons that no business would be done on Sunday, and recommended the laying in of a sufficient supply on Saturday night. The drug stores will receive particular attention today, as the chief is anxious to make an example of the law. The drug store found breaking the law.

CAUGHT IN THE ACT.

Burglar Arrested While Robbing a Saloon.

Charles Smith, who was discovered by Special Officer A. H. White early yesterday morning, while attempting to open the cash register in the New Resort saloon, at 211 South State street, has a penitentiary term starting him in the morning. White saw the man in the saloon about 3 o'clock in the morning and waited until the burglar attempted to leave through the rear door, when he seized him and took him to the station. Smith became alarmed before he had secured any booty, but admitted that he was attempting to rob the saloon when he was captured. He says that he is a laboring man and had been in the city but a few days, that he had no money and was "up against it" and took that means of obtaining funds. He is unknown to the local police and is firm in his statement that he has never been in jail before.

LOW DEATH RECORD.

Only Fourteen Succumbed in Salt Lake During Past Week.

There were fewer deaths in Salt Lake during the past week than for any week since the first of the year, and July promises to be a record-breaking month in this respect, as the records so far are below the average. The number of deaths for the week are fourteen, of which eight were males and six females.

There were forty-six births, twenty males and twenty-six females, reported. Only ten cases of contagious diseases were scheduled, and of these four were diphtheria and six whooping cough.

JUDD TO DELIVER BONDS.

Clerk of Board of Education to Close Deal.

L. P. Judd, clerk of the board of education, will close some time during the week to Chicago to deliver to N. W. Halsey & Co. the 250 bonds of the board, valued at $1,000 each, which have been sold to that concern. Mr. Judd, after delivering the bonds, will receive a certified check for the amount and deposit it in the Commercial National bank of Chicago to the credit of McCormick & Co. of Salt Lake, where the board does its banking. The sum of $25 was appropriated to Mr. Judd for the trip. This is cheaper than sending the bonds by express, as that method would cost approximately $150. After transacting the business of the board, Mr. Judd will take a trip to New York, and expects to be gone about fifteen days.

The board at a special session yesterday noon authorized this procedure.
